

We Are Maldivian Local Tour

Amilla is a proudly locally owned and operated resort. We are Maldivian and want to share our heritage with you, our guests on this excursion to explore two local islands nearby.

The first stop will be to B. Kendhoo, the first island to welcome Islam to the Maldives.

At this island you will see the first mosque to appear in Maldives as well as many other historical and ancestral works of art. Here you will also have the opportunity to witness the islands industry of making coir rope by hand.

Your next stop will be B. Kударикилу. This island is home to a national heritage museum, with countless historic pieces that truly showcase the history of the Maldives. The villagers here will offer you a fresh drinking coconut and traditional hand made snacks
